2012 Haut Bergey 90-93
A Bordeaux Blend Dry White Table wine from Pessac
Leognan, Bordeaux, France

Wine Advocate # 206 (Apr 2013)
Review by Robert Parker

Attractive, subtle smoky notes blend beautifully with the broad, honeyed character of this complex white Bordeaux. Aromas of beer nuts, tropical fruit and caramelized grapefruit emerge from this impressive, medium to full-bodied wine. It should drink well for a decade.

2012 Haut Bergey White 90-92
Tasted from a barrel sample at en primeur. A blend of 85% Sauvignon Blanc and 15% Semillon and matured in 50% new oak, 25% one year and the rest stainless steel, this has a lovely fresh lemon thyme and apricot scented bouquet that has great freshness. The palate is well balanced with a fresh opening, very good weight and volume, but looking for just a touch more complexity on the finish that may develop in barrel. Good potential here. Tasted April 2013.

Château Haut-Bergey white 2012 89-92
Lively acidity carries the mache, sweet pea, white asparagus and kaffir lime notes along. Still relatively restrained overall, though, with nice elegance on the finish.

Attaque tout en suavité, milieu de bouche confortable et finale sans amertume. Vin séducteur.

HAUT BERGEY Pessac-Léognan blanc 15,75
Couleur pâle. Nez fin, fruité, de type mûr, accompagné d'une note de citron. Bouche fondante et aérienne se développant juteuse, parfumée et suave. La sapidité est remarquable et ce vin est impossible à cracher. Bonne longueur.
