

CHATEAU HAUT-BERGEY ROUGE 2009

Wine Spectator
James Molesworth, Issue March, 31
2012

Pessac-Léognan 2009

CHÂTEAU HAUT-BERGEY Score: 90
Bright cherry and berry fruit flavors nestle in a broad, soft texture in this juicy red, which has bright acidity, modest tannins and an herbal, floral finish that's fresh and focused. Not a blockbuster, but balanced and harmonious. Drink now through 2017.

Château Haut Bergey 2009 92-94

One of the best over-achieving, value-priced wines in Pessac-Leognan, Haut-Bergey's vineyard enjoys a superb location near Malartic-Lagraviere and Domaine de Chevalier. Composed of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon and the rest primarily Cabernet Franc and a dollop of Petit Verdot, the opaque purple-hued 2009 reveals a big, exuberant nose of charcoal, black currants, sweet cherries, and graphite. Dense and full-bodied, with beautiful purity, texture, and length, it should drink well for 20+ years.

2009 Chateau Haut-Bergey 90-92

Tasted at Clos l'Eglise. This has a rather pinched nose, blackberry, oyster shell, briary and crushed stones; very fresh and delineated, not powerful, but opening nicely with aeration. The palate is medium-bodied, grainy tannins, quite meaty and grainy, some savoury notes towards the finish. Understated, approachable, nice sous-bois elements on the finish. Fine. Tasted April 2010

2009 Chateau Haut Bergey Pessac Leognan 90-93

Inky purple. Perfectly ripe but rather understated black plum and blackcurrant are complicated by floral notes of rose, gardenia and violet as well as a hint of tartar sauce. Easygoing and smooth on entry, with flamboyant ripe black fruit and Oriental spice flavors that come as a surprise following the nose. Finishes clean and long, with considerable tannic bite and a pleasant lingering flinty mineral note. This will need time to resolve its youthfully aggressive-but not drying-tannins. Terrific potential.

CHÂTEAU HAUT-BERGEY Pessac-Léognan 2009 Score: 90-93

Pretty nose of blackberry and mineral that follows through to a full body, with velvety tannins and a long finish. Juicy and rich. Very well done.

Chateau Haut-Bergey, Pessac-Leognan 2009

Black red, concentrated tobacco leaf cassis fruit, good concentration and vigour, has a greenness that needs to soften. Drink 2014-20. (16 points)

“Very ripe. Sweet and round with a little fragrance. Pretty drying on the finish. A bit too much like hard work?”. Drink 2016-2028.

BORDEAUX PRIMEURS 2009

Un très beau millésime qu'il faut acheter

Château HAUT-BERGEY 15/20

Le nez et la bouche sont fermés. On devine un vin plus subtil qu'imposant dans un registre très floral. La matière soit se délier à l'élevage pour patiner les tanins présents.

HAUT BERGEY Pessac-Léognan 15,25
Couleur sombre, intense, belle. Nez fruité, frais, mûr. Vin moelleux et suave en bouche, qui se développe aromatique, avec du corps et de la tendreté. Bonne longueur réglissée.
